License Agreement for the Use of the MICSS Program with the ERPBOOK Scenario

Elyakim Management Systems (1992) Ltd. grants the purchaser of the book: ERP: Tools, Techniques and Applications for Integrating the Supply Chain, by Carol A. Ptak, CFPIM, CIRM, Jonah, PMP, the license to one installation of the enclosed MICSS program on a PC computer or a notebook. It is not allowed to install the MICSS program on a network.

The use of MICSS (Management Interactive Case Study System) is limited to personal learning only. It is strictly forbidden to use the software for any commercial use. The use of MICSS in class is not allowed unless the university purchases a university license from Elyakim Management Systems (1992) Ltd.

All copyrights in the MICSS program shall at all times remain the property of Elyakim Management Systems (1992) Ltd. The user is not allowed to introduce any modifications to the software and to the label on the CDE. The user may not reverse engineer, decompile, list or print the software.

Elyakim Management Systems (1992) Ltd. does not and cannot warrant the performance of or the results that may be obtained by using the software. Elyakim Management Systems (1992) Ltd. hereby specifically disclaims any and all express and implied warranties with respect to the software.

Under no circumstances shall Elyakim Management Systems (1992) Ltd. be liable to the user or any other person for any special, incidental or consequential damages, including, without limitation, lost profit or lost data, loss of other programs, or otherwise, and whether arising out of breach of warranty, breach of contract, tort (including negligence) or otherwise, even if advised of such damage or if such damage could have been reasonably foreseen, except only in case of personal injury where applicable law requires such liability.
