5 AND FURTHER, this court having reviewed the evidence heretofore submitted by plaintiff
6 in support of its Application for Default Judgment;

7 NOW THEN, the Court makes the following findings: (1) HOOVER, an unincorporated
8 association, is a criminal street gang within the meaning of Penal Code section 186.22(f); (2)
9 HOOVER is a large gang which is also known and represented by its cliques: 52, 59, 74, 83, 92, 94,
10 107, and 112 Hoovers; (3) TROUBLE, an unincorporated association, (also known as 51 Trouble 11 and Nothing But Trouble) is a criminal street gang within the meaning of Penal Code section 12 186.22(f); (4) the individual defendants are members of HOOVER and/or TROUBLE; (5) together, 13 these defendants have created and maintain a public nuisance in an area hereinafter described and 14 referred to as the Figueroa Corridor Safety Zone; (6) there is no adequate remedy at law to protect 15 the community in the Figueroa Corridor Safety Zone from the nuisance activities of these 16 defendants. Plaintiff has met its burden of proof as to each and every element of the cause of action
17 for abatement of a public nuisance as alleged in the Complaint as against each and every defaulting 18 defendant by clear and convincing proof. Service was proper as to each defaulting defendant.
