Plaintiff, the People of the State of California, ex rel. Rockard J. Delgadillo as the City Attorney for the City of Los Angeles, filed a complaint seeking to abate a public nuisance through the use of what is commonly known as a "gang injunction," against defendant Dogtown, a criminal street gang sued as an unincorporated association, and against all members of defendant Dogtown gang, and all those through whom the defendant acts, in a "Safety Zone" (maps of which are included as pages 3-5),

1 located in the City of Los Angeles, comprised of two areas: the first area, known as the “William 2 Mead” area, includes but is not limited to the entire William Mead Housing Development, and is 3 bounded by North Main Street, East Elmyra Street, Bolero Lane, and Leroy Street, including the 4 sidewalk on the outside of each of those boundary streets, and extending 100 yards to the far side of 5 North Main Street, and including the buildings and playing fields located in the William Mead 6 Housing Development beyond the end of East Elmyra Street to where it would intersect with an 7 extension of Bolero Lane; and the second area, known as the “Northeast” area, starts at the 8 intersection of North Figueroa Street and North Avenue 50, continuing north along North Avenue 50
9 past Monte Vista Street to Granada Street, then east along Granada Street to Holland Avenue, then 10 north along Holland Avenue to Aldama Street, then east along Aldama Street to North Avenue 56, 11 then south along Avenue 56 to Monte Vista Street, then east along Monte Vista Street to North
12 Avenue 59, then south along North Avenue 59 to North Figueroa Street, then west along North
13 Figueroa Street to the starting point at its intersection with North Avenue 50, and extending 100
14 yards to the outside of each of those boundary streets; plaintiff subsequently voluntarily dismissed
15 without prejudice all fictitious “Doe” defendants; default was duly entered against the defendant
16 Dogtown; after due consideration of all papers filed in this action, including the declarations, other 17 evidence submitted, plaintiff’s memorandum of points and authorities including People ex rel. Gallo
18 v. Acuna (1997) 14 Cal. 4th 1090, cert. denied, 521 U.S. 1121; People v. Englebrecht (2001) 88 Cal.
19 App. 4th 1236; In re Englebrecht (1998) 67 Cal. App. 4th 486, and other argument of counsel, this 20 Court finds by clear and convincing evidence that service is proper under the circumstances, that 21 defendant Dogtown is a criminal street gang as defined in Penal Code section 186.22 (the Street 22 Terrorism Enforcement and Prevention "STEP" Act), that defendant Dogtown is a gang as defined 23 for the purpose of a gang abatement injunction in People v. Englebrecht (2001) 88 Cal. App. 4th 24 1236, 1258, that a public nuisance caused by the conduct and activities of a criminal street gang
25 exists in the Safety Zone, and that the conduct and activities of defendant Dogtown and its members, 26 and those persons through whom defendant Dogtown acts, is a cause of the public nuisance that 27 exists in the Safety Zone; and good cause appearing for entry of judgment,
